My Last Duchess - Wikipedia

Last week, I looked at the context behind My Last Duchess, as it's such an interesting background to the poem. Although based on historical characters, Browning's selection of the character and time period is interesting in itself. I think it represents a real shift from the Romanticism of the earlier poems in the new AQA English Literature GCSE syllabus. Browning brings to it his ...

My Last Duchess | Teaching English

From the title My Last Duchess, 'My' is a personal pronoun , and this indicates how the Duke makes everything about him. to add to this, the constant use of 'I's and 'My's and 'Myself's creates this idea that everything revolves around him, making him sound pompous to readers. * Also the reader can start to question the Dukes morality from the use of 'Last' in the title. This suggests that the ...
