Reflection should be an ongoing process, not just a tick-box part of revalidation. He says reflective practice is an approach that nurses should be using at all times, not just reaching for it to complete the paperwork every three years when revalidation looms. ' Reflective practice is not something that is switched on and off, ' he says.

The easiest way to present the evidence for Revalidation is by maintaining a Portfolio – this can be in a paper or electronic format. If you already have a professional portfolio, it is not expected that you need a separate portfolio for revalidation, but please ensure that in building upon an existing portfolio you include the exact requirements of revalidation.
